At HSMC Orizon, you get the CPA prestige and professionalism without it being so taxing (pun intended). We offer:

- Signing Bonus!
- Competitive salary with a performance bonus
- Generous benefits package including health, life and disability insurance, 401(k), and a unique PTO plan
- Work/life balance with a flexible schedule
- Friday afternoons off in the summer
- Firm and community involvement activities

Who You Are

A qualified professional who not only possesses the technical skills, knowledge and experience required, but also has a positive attitude, confidence and the ability to function well within a team environment.

What You Will Do

The Tax Manager will work directly with clients and the firm's shareholders, principals, and other team members in providing accounting and tax services for business and individual clients.

What You Will Be Responsible For

- Manage client relationships with proactive advice and superior customer service
- Assist shareholders and principals in the delivery of tax services including planning, research and compliance
- Assist shareholders and principals in the delivery of accounting services and financial statement compilations
- Review complex income tax returns for various entities and successful high net worth individuals
- Manage staff and their workload by monitoring project/return deadlines, have frequent daily contact with team members in assessing project status and problems encountered
- Interact with client personnel on tax return information, due dates, deadlines and other compliance matters
- Identify opportunities to provide additional services to clients to assist the client in achieving their goals
- Develop a personal network of contacts through active involvement in professional and civic organizations
- Provide creativity in evaluating tax service procedures and recommend improvements in those areas
- Work closely with staff, and assist senior management in mentoring, coaching, training, and evaluating staff

What You Should Possess

- Bachelor's degree
- CPA license
- 5+ years of experience in federal and state tax compliance work in public accounting
- Flexible enough to handle complex client engagements as well as routine tax and accounting work, both of which require hands on problem solving abilities and experience
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- Excellent analytical, organizational and project management skills
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to develop and maintain strong client relationships

Where You Will Be Working

Our office in West Omaha, Nebraska.
